Dounans nestles at the foot of the Trossachs, on the outskirts of the popular tourist village of Aberfoyle. The turn-off for Dounans is on the right hand side, immediately at the 30mph signs at the start of the village (sign). A 500 metre single-track road is followed from the main road to the centre.

From Stirling

- By car: take the A84 from M9 junction 9 to Blair Drummond then fork left on the A873 for Aberfoyle. Follow this road straight ahead, joining the A81 (Glasgow) after Thornhill. Turn Right at the mini-roundabout, next to the Rob Roy Hotel, for Aberfoyle A821.
- By bus: First (service 11) from Stirling Bus station to Aberfoyle then walk back along the road to speed limit signs.

From Glasgow

- By car: take the A81 north from the M8 until a mini-roundabout next to the Rob Roy Hotel and turn left for Aberfoyle A821.
- By bus: First (service 10) from Buchanan Bus Station to Balfron then First (service 11) for Stirling (or Aberfoyle Motors service C21 from the clinic) to Aberfoyle then walk back along the road to speed limit signs
